By now, most of us have packed up our Christmas trees, tucked away decorations and settled back into our normal routines. What I hope still remains is the spirit of Christmas, the spirit of service. Matthew 20:28 tells us that Christ came to serve, not to be served. His life and ministry show that believers are to follow his example.

I'm so thankful Drew reminded us of this Sunday morning, that we are all equal and necessary parts that put together the whole of the Church. It is not the job of pastors or church staff to serve people while church members sit idly by. We are all called to serve each other and those outside the church walls for the glory of God. No matter how simple, we have an important role to play in His kingdom.

Your prayer for missionaries matters. Your offering to support spreading the gospel near and far matters. Your volunteering on Wednesday nights or at the Mission center matters.

Don't allow the difficulties and responsibilities of life to distract or discourage you from the work God has for you. Lean on others and allow them to serve God by encouraging you. Whether right in our own neighborhoods or across the globe, we have the privilege and responsibility to serve alongside our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Thank you for allowing me to serve beside you!
